We've accepted your project. Thanks for trusting us. Please check your email.

The projects come with a few premium plugins and themes, which we do not sell or sub-license in any case, only if projects require the respective plugins and themes, we use them in your website. We don't provide any dedicated customer service or calling facility. You can write to us, and we may revert as soon as possible based on our team size and availability. The amount is not refundable if the project has been initiated by our team or partially refundable in any case after deducting the transaction amount charged by the gateway. Our services are a one-time-based service, and we do not provide any after-service support. If any is required, it will be get done either as a friendly gesture or will be chargeable. To renew any plugin or theme based on its validity you need to pay the concurrent year's charges.
